ORDER OF REVOCATION (§42-2-126 C.R.S.)

THIS IS YOUR OFFICIAL ORDER. Unless you make a written request for hearing, surrender your license, and receive a permit from the Department as explained below, this order takes effect on the eighth (8th) day following the Date of Notice*. This order remains in effect until you serve the period of revocation, comply with the provisions of §42-2-132 C.R.S., and complete the reinstatement process. Following reinstatement, you may have to pass a written and drive test before receiving a new driver's license.

- [] REFUSAL. Because you refused to take or complete, or to cooperate with any testing or tests of your blood, breath, saliva, and/or urine, your driver's license and/or driving privilege is hereby revoked. (FIRST OFFENSE - one year, three years if hazardous material violation. SECOND OFFENSE - two years, life if commercial licensee. THIRD OR SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE - three years, life if commercial licensee.)
- [] EXCESS B.A.C. Because you submitted to testing that disclosed an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or more, or 0.02 or more if you are under the age of 21, your driver's license and/or driving privilege is hereby revoked. (FIRST OFFENSE - nine months, three months if under 21 and B.A.C. is under 0.08, one year if commercial licensee. SECOND OFFENSE - one year, six months if under 21 and B.A.C. is under 0.08, life if commercial licensee. THIRD OR SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE - two years, life if commercial licensee.)
- [] COMMERCIAL VEHICLE AND/OR HAZARDOUS MATERIALS WITH EXCESS B.A.C. Because you submitted to testing that disclosed an alcohol concentration of 0.04 or more, or at least 0.02 but less than 0.04 if you are under the age of 21, your driver's license and/or driving privilege is hereby revoked. (FIRST OFFENSE - one year, three years if hazardous material violation, three months if under 21 and B.A.C. is under 0.04. SECOND OFFENSE - life, six months if under 21 and B.A.C. is under 0.04. THIRD OR SUBSEQUENT OFFENSE - life, one year if under 21 and B.A.C. is under 0.04.)

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO REQUEST A HEARING (§42-2-126(7) C.R.S.) You must request a hearing in writing. If the department does not receive your written request by the first business day following the sixth (6th) calendar day from the Date of Notice*, you waive your right to hearing and this order is final. You may make your request for hearing in person at any Colorado Driver's License Office; BRING THIS AFFIDAVIT AND NOTICE WITH YOU. If you surrender a valid license either prior to or at the time of your written request, the Department may issue a temporary permit at that time; if issued, that permit is valid until your first scheduled hearing date. If the Department does not issue a temporary permit, this order takes effect on the eighth (8th) day following the Date of Notice* and your privilege is revoked pending final determination at hearing. The hearing you request with the Department concerns only your driving privilege; it is not your court appearance. Refer to the Uniform Summons and Complaint in your paperwork for instructions regarding your court appearance on criminal charges.

SURRENDER OF DRIVER'S LICENSE Section 42-2-126 (5)(b), C.R.S., requires the officer to take possession of any driver's license you hold. When you surrender your driver's license, the officer may issue a temporary permit that will remain in force for seven (7) calendar days after the Date of Notice*.

TEMPORARY PERMIT This entire notice and order is a temporary permit which expires on the seventh (7th) day after the Date of Notice* when indicated below and when signed by both you and the peace officer.

INFORMATION CONCERNING COLORADO LAW

1. Any person who drives a motor vehicle in Colorado is deemed to have given express consent to a test of his/her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol content if a police officer has probable cause to believe a person has been driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of, or impaired by alcohol.
2. Any person who drives a motor vehicle in Colorado is deemed to have given express consent to submit to a test of his/her blood, saliva, and/or urine for the purpose of determining the drug content if a police officer has probable cause to believe a person has been driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of, or impaired by drugs.
3. You are not allowed to speak to an attorney prior to responding to the Officer's request for test(s).
4. If your lack of cooperation prevents the requested test(s) from being completed within two hours of your driving, you will be deemed to have refused testing.
5. A refusal to sign any release or consent form(s) required by a person authorized to take or withdraw specimens is a refusal to take the required test(s).
6. The result of the test(s) or your refusal to take the test(s) may be used in evidence against you in any proceedings on charges that have been or will be filed against you.
7. If you are under the age of 21 and this is a first revocation for at least 0.02 and your blood alcohol content was not greater than 0.05, you may be eligible to have the license revocation changed to a license suspension and to have a probationary driver's license after serving 30 days of the license revocation. To receive more information, contact the Hearing Section, (303) 205-5606.
8. If you are 21 or older and this is a revocation for refusal, you may apply for an early reinstatement of your driving privilege with an interlock restricted license after you serve two months under revocation. In order to qualify for early reinstatement, you must have an ignition interlock device installed on your vehicle. Item #10 below applies to ALL refusals.
9. If you are 21 or older and this is a revocation for having a B.A.C. of 0.08 or more in a non-commercial/HAZMAT vehicle, you may apply for early reinstatement of your driving privilege with an interlock restricted license after you serve one month under revocation. In order to qualify for early reinstatement, you must have an ignition interlock device installed on your vehicle. The requirement for the ignition interlock device and the interlock restriction will remain for a minimum of eight months. If your B.A.C. tested at or above 0.15, or if this is a second or subsequent offense, item #10 below also applies.
10. If you refused, if your B.A.C. tested at or above 0.15, or if this is a second or subsequent offense, as a condition of license reinstatement you will be required to complete a Level II alcohol education and treatment program administered by a provider certified by the Office of Behavioral Health of the Colorado Department of Human Services. Also, for a period of at least two years following reinstatement, your privilege to drive will be restricted to the operation of a motor vehicle equipped with an ignition interlock device.
